Terms and Conditions

1. Scope of License.

Institutional Subscriber Use Restrictions. The subscription includes authorization by means of the institution's IP address to allow site-wide online access by authorized users via multiple connections. If a proxy server is being registered for access, the subscriber agrees to maintain the security of the access by authenticating authorized users before allowing use of the proxy to any remote or on-site user.

Authorized users must be employees, faculty, staff, or students officially affiliated with the subscriber, or authorized on-site patrons of the subscriber's library facilities. Sites may be academic or nonacademic. For academic institutions, different campuses are considered different sites even if they are within the same city. Departments or libraries of the same campus are considered part of the same site. For nonacademic institutions, sites are defined as geographically separate units, even if they are within the same city. Each branch, office, or laboratory is a different site.

This subscription entitles authorized users to access Trans Tech Publications electronic journals and:

- a. make searches of the journals to which they subscribe
- b. download search results to hard disk or diskette. Authorized users who do download articles must maintain all copyright and other notices on the articles.
- c. Course Packs. Licensee and Authorized Users may use a reasonable portion of the Licensed Materials in the preparation of Course Packs or other educational materials.
- d. Course Reserves (Print and Electronic). Licensee and Authorized Users may use a reasonable portion of the Licensed Materials for use in connection with specific courses of instruction offered by the University of California.
- e. Scholarly Sharing. Authorized Users may transmit to a third party in hard copy or electronically, minimal, insubstantial amounts of the Licensed Materials for personal use or scholarly, educational, or scientific research or professional use but in no case for resale or commercial purposes.

The downloading of an entire journal issue or complete journal volume in a systematic fashion is strictly prohibited.

Interlibrary Loan options: Choose an ILL option from A or B and indicate your choice below:

Option A.

Institutions may use hard copies derived from the electronic edition of the publications for the purpose of inter-library loan with the same limitations that apply to copies for that purpose made from the print edition of the journals. Specifically, copies must be made in compliance with Section 108 of the Copyright Act of the U.S. and be within the CONTU guidelines. Authorized users who do print articles must maintain all copyright and other notices on the printed articles.

Option B.

Institutions may use electronic copies of journal articles from the electronic edition of the publications for the purpose of inter-library loan with the same limitations that apply to paper copies for that purpose made from the print edition of the journals. Specifically, copies must be made in compliance with Section 108 of the Copyright Act of the U.S. and be within the CONTU guidelines. Authorized users who do print articles must maintain all copyright and other notices on the electronic versions of the articles.

Electronic transmission of journal articles is allowed unless, as a purpose or effect of such, the library receiving such copies does so in such quantities as to substitute for a subscription. Interlibrary loans are restricted to academic libraries for educational purposes.

2. Terms and Fees.

This Agreement will last through the end of the calendar year in which the subscription first becomes effective. This Agreement is signed and will remain in effect thereafter for successive calendar years so long as annual subscription fees are paid. Either party may terminate this Agreement, effective on the next renewal date, by at least 30 days written notice to the other party.

The annual fee for this subscription may be raised by written notice to the subscriber, given at least three months prior to the next succeeding renewal date. The fee for each year this Agreement is renewed must be paid on or before the renewal date or the renewal will be invalid.

3. Copyright.

Trans Tech Publications electronic journals and their contents are subject to copyright, database protection, and other rights of the publisher (TTP) under the laws of Switzerland and the country of use.

The subscriber acknowledges that it has no claim to ownership by reason of its use of or access to TTP electronic journals. Downloading of data is permitted solely for subscriber's internal use to the same extent as the printed version of the publication. Recompiling, publication or republication of the data, or any portion thereof, in any form or medium whatsoever, may be done only with specific written permission from TTP.

4. Suspension or termination of access.

TTP reserves the right to suspend and/or terminate access to TTP electronic journals without prior notice if the subscriber violates any term of this Agreement. Any use of the electronic journals beyond the scope of the License or any fraudulent, abusive, or otherwise illegal activities may be grounds for termination of access. The foregoing includes but is not limited to activity that may burden TTP's server(s), such as computer programs that automatically download content, commonly known as robots, spiders, crawlers, wanderers or accelerators.

5. Disclaimer of warranties.

a. TTP has made and will make good faith efforts to ensure that TTP electronic journals are complete and accurate. However, TTP does not warrant completeness or accuracy, and does not warrant that the subscriber's use of TTP electronic journals will be uninterrupted or error-free, or that the results obtained will be useful or will satisfy the subscriber's requirements.

b. TTP warrants that it is entitled to grant the licenses outlined in this Agreement, but makes no other warranties or representations of any kind, expressed or implied, including but not limited to warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

c. The subscriber will be permitted to access TTP electronic journals at any time. TTP will not be liable for any delay, down time, or other failure of performance, but will use reasonable efforts to correct any performance problem brought to its attention.

d. TTP will not be responsible for incidental, consequential, or any other damages arising out of or in connection with the service or materials provided hereunder.

e. Both parties agree to indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any liability or claim of any person arising from use of TTP electronic Journals.

6. Perpetual Access

On termination of the Agreement, TTP shall provide continuing access for Authorized Users to that part of the TTP electronic journals that was accessible by Subscriber under the terms of this Agreement and for which the Subscriber had a yearly subscription in place. Such continuing access will be provided either from TTP's server subject to such fees as the parties agree, or by supplying to the Subscriber electronic files in the then-current format on a medium of TTP's choice for a fee that reflects the cost of preparation and delivery. The terms and conditions of this Agreement pertaining to copyright and usage obligations of TTP and the Subscriber will continue to apply

a. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and supersedes any prior communication between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. Only a written instrument signed by both parties may amend it. Without limitation of the foregoing, any purchase order or other instrument that the subscriber may issue for TTP electronic journals is for the subscriber's internal purposes only and will in no way modify, add to or subtract from the terms and conditions provided herein.

b. The subscriber may not assign or transfer its rights under this Agreement.

c. This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of California. Any action arising out of or relating to this Agreement or TTP electronic journals may be brought in courts situated in California and the parties consent to the jurisdiction of such.
